Message from Rabbi Jan Katz

This month Israel is set to pay tribute to the casualties of war and terrorism, those who paid the ultimate sacrifice for the sake of the modern State of Israel. Yom Hazikaron - (Memorial Day) will be commemorated on the 4th of the Hebrew month of Iyar, on Monday, May 13. Natan Alterman's famous Hebrew poem, Magash Hakesef ("The Silver Platter") about the human price that we have paid, will be read at every memorial service. The poem's title is based on a quote by Israel's first President, Chaim Weizman from December, 1947:

A State is not handed to a people on a silver platter.

אין מדינה נתנת לעם על מגש של כסף

The juxtaposition of Yom Hazikaron and Yom Ha'atzmaut (Independence Day) the very next day, implies that without the sacrifice of the heroic generation of 1948, and the succeeding wars, we would not have a Jewish State. In his poem, Alterman describes a war-torn land, a homeland of "smoky frontiers" still burning from battle. He wrote of a Jewish homeland that was "torn at the heart but continues to exist" as we experience both "terror and joy" together. In the poem's final passage, Alterman conjures up the image of two young Jewish soldiers, a boy and a girl, who are battle-weary and fatigued, covered with the dirt and grime of the long, hard war they've been fighting. It becomes clear that these two young Jews are no longer among the living. As they stagger into view, an entire nation gazes on them, also exhausted, and in center stage are the injured soldiers at the front lines defending the first Jewish country in nearly two thousand years. Finally, the two young soldiers say softly: "We are the silver platter on which you were handed the State of Israel." Their job is done, now up to succeeding generations to live out their dream.

The poem prophetically predicts the upcoming wars and their human cost to ensure the survival of the State of Israel. It does not glorify the fallen, but rather mourns the sacrifice that will be made. That said, the soldiers are the "silver," the metal and the mettle that emerges from determination, strength, boldness, bravery, and courage. They glitter and shine from the smoke and darkness. They enact their own miracles. They may fall and die, but their spirit gives birth to those who witness, those who love them and the vision of an Israel of justice, equity, and love for all who reside there, and a source of pride for Jews outside of Israel who stubbornly keep this vision alive.

The painful confluence of sacrifice for the sake of redemption continues 76 years into the establishment of the State of Israel, as manifest and real as in the images of Alterman's 1947 poem.

Singer and songwriter Naomi Shemer ז"ל offers gratitude to the Eternal in her iconic Al kol eileh - "For all these things: al hadvash v'al ha-oketz - for the honey and for the sting." We are not meant to avoid the honey because of the sting, but rather appreciate the honey despite the sting of nettle.

Let us mourn the wounded, the captive and the fallen on May 13 and let us also bless and celebrate the existence of the State of Israel on May 14, Israel's 76th birthday!

Am Yisrael Chai!

Message from President Ira Keltz

Dear TBI Family,

This may be my last President's message for the Tablet as my 5th term ends in June.

I again want to thank the Interim Steering Committee for their service to TBI as they take on more leadership roles for the upcoming Temple year starting in June. These folks including Carl Crosley, Barbara Katz, Stu Needleman, Karen Lukeman and Reva Tankle are some of the strongest and most hardworking volunteers of the TBI Board of Trustees. We will be in great hands to continue incrementally improving TBI to provide a stronger Jewish Community in the Lakes Region and to help guide us into the 2nd half of this decade.

I've always viewed my role as President as a caretaker. One of a long line of leaders who have stepped up to guide the board going back to the 1930's when our building was constructed on Court Street. This legacy will continue hopefully for another 100 years!

It has been an honor and a privilege to lead TBI through 'the Covid years', with its major shift to virtual and hybrid services, with the creation of the Finance Committee, implementing the new website and multiple cloud based software systems, welcoming Rabbi Dan Danson and Rabbi Jan Katz to our TBI family, and encouraging the community to vote and recognize TBI for it really is... The Best Place of Worship in the Lakes Region for 5 years and going. Thank you to our TBI Board and membership for providing support, volunteering their time and resources extensively and for putting us all in a position both administratively and financially to keep TBI strong for future generations and members.

Although I am not Cohanim, I share this blessing all with you.

"May the LORD bless you, and keep you;
May the LORD make His face shine upon you, and be gracious to you;
May the LORD lift up His face to you, and give you peace."

Warmly,

Ira

Ira will be honored at our Shabbat Morning Service on Saturday, June 22

Yom HaShoah Program
at the Congregational Church of Laconia

In observance of Yom HaShoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day, Temple B'nai Israel, the Unitarian Universalist Society of Laconia, the Congregational Church of Laconia, and the Laconia Human Rights Committee are proud to present a program to promote the importance of speaking out against injustice. The program will feature a screening of the acclaimed documentary "Defying the Nazis: The Sharps' War," followed by a question-and-answer session led by Dr. Larry Benaquist.

"Defying the Nazis: The Sharps' War," sheds light on the heroic efforts of Unitarian Minister Waitstill Sharp and his wife Martha. The Sharps, from Wellesley, Massachusetts, risked their lives to save countless Jews and refugees fleeing Nazi persecution across Europe. The film, which premiered on PBS in 2016, was produced by legendary filmmaker Ken Burns and Artemis Joukowsky, III, and is based on the book by Joukowsky, grandson of the Sharps.

Following the documentary screening, a question-and-answer session will be led by Larry Benaquist, Ph.D. Dr. Benaquist is an Emeritus Professor of Film Studies at Keene State College, where he founded the film studies program and played a key role in establishing the Holocaust and Genocide Studies major. He also has extensive experience teaching courses related to film and the Holocaust. Dr. Benaquist played a significant role in the production of "Defying the Nazis," contributing his expertise and research. His personal experience and insights will add a unique dimension to the program.

Light refreshments will be served during the Q&A session. All are welcome to attend this free community program.

THANK YOU!!

The Confirmation Class of the Laconia Congregational Church recently visited TBI as part of their inter-faith study program. Ray Chambers led a tour of the building and provided an explanation of Jewish practices.

Rabbi Jan and Ray,
I'm writing with sincere thanks to you and your community for the wonderful welcome extended to our Confirmation class. The youth were very attentive and could feel that they were in a holy place. In Confirmation we strive to emphasize the value of all faith traditions in our community and we highlight the many similarities and unique perspectives. As they continue to learn more about the United Church of Christ and choose membership in their home church, we want them to feel in fellowship with youth practicing other traditions. Our Confirmands now understand that their Jewish peers go through a much more intensive experience as they move towards adulthood.

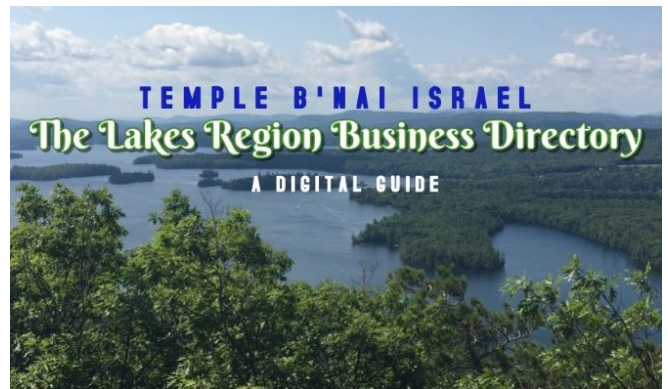

Ray, your knowledge and passion helped the young people experience the depth of your faith and the commitment to your history. We were honored to see the Torah and understand more about its importance. You're an excellent teacher and we -adults and youth- appreciate the information, and your generosity of spirit and time.

I plan to attend the event you're sponsoring at our church on May 4th. Prior to the film, I'll be attending a 3-day Conference for Christian Educators and I'll be leaving it early in hopes to return to Laconia by 1:00.

With many thanks,
Diane Tinkham

- Tuesday, May 21 – 13 Iyar: B'har; Leviticus 25:1-27:34.
Some food for thought from “Parashat Behar: Summary | My Jewish Learning” before the session:
 - 1) Why do you think God insists that even the land have a Sabbath, a year of complete rest?
 - 2) God commands that a brother in trouble must be treated fairly and with a respect that preserves his dignity. Think about your own dealings with your siblings. What are some ways you have helped (or could help) a family member in trouble and still preserve his or her dignity?
 - 3) This portion describes the Jubilee Year, the 50th year, as a time of release and freedom. Is this concept of a Jubilee Year still meaningful? In what ways?
- Tuesday, June 18 – 12 Sivan: B'ha'alotecha

TBI is proud to be represented at this annual community event by Rabbi Jan, members of the TBI board, and our congregation.

The National Day of Prayer enables us to recall and teach the way in which our founding fathers sought the wisdom of God when faced with critical decisions. It stands as a call to us to humbly come before God, seeking God's guidance and God's grace upon us as people.

Lakes Region Interfaith Prayer Breakfast was started as a means of bringing together people of different backgrounds and affiliations to celebrate the blessings of the year, and join in inclusive fellowship for the spiritual renewal of community, state and nation.
