The safety and security of all who attend events at Temple B'nai Israel is of utmost importance.

TBI recently upgraded our building security system, and we are continuing to improve and expand the components. In addition, there will be heightened security at all temple functions including a Laconia police officer and cruiser on site.

In line with our new security program, we ask that nonmembers who wish to attend services or programs in the building register to attend using the form on our website. Members of TBI and their guests are not required to pre-register.

During the winter season respiratory illnesses are prevalent in our region.

While we welcome you and your family to attend our events we urge you to consider whether your in-person attendance is most appropriate for you and for those around you.

- If you have an upper respiratory illness, or symptoms consistent with that including sore throat, runny nose, fever and the like please consider attending our services on Zoom.
- If you know that you have been exposed to COVID or RSV within the week prior to the event or service, we ask that you attend via Zoom.

Message from Rabbi Jan Katz

A Recipe for Cultivating the Spirit of Purim 2024 / 5784

Note to the chefs:

Every other year for decades, we have celebrated this upside down Jewish holiday with a reading and dramatic mockery (purim shpiel) of the megillah, the scroll of Esther, most likely a fictional narrative of intrigue in a Persian royal household, but really about an evil plot against the Jews, thwarted at the last minute, and the Jews are saved from destruction once again. Somehow this year is different. The narrative seems less fictional, and the redemptive end seems nowhere in sight.

Ingredients:

1 cup of AWARENESS: of our authentic Jewish identity; of our environment—both friendly and hostile; of our own internal biases; of our history and its consequences; of the possibilities in front of us, even amidst uncertainty, ambiguity, and moments of despair.

1 cup of continuing DEDICATION: to our Jewish and greater community causes; to remaining engaged in our communities; to prioritizing compassion over judgment; to considering all sides of issues in our own families, among our local constituents, and in the world arena.

1 cup of ACTION: Elie Wiesel taught us that apathy is acceptance of evil while standing up is the only way to counter evil. Abraham Joshua Heschel taught us to pray with our feet. Martin Buber taught us that the Divine exists only in mutual relationships. And Rabbi Barbara Symons reminds us of the Purim model of celebrating victory: “We need to share our spoils with others, both those in need and those who have plenty. We are neither to gloat nor to turn inward. When there are two sides, we need to strive for the benefit of both.” (Prophetic Voices, p.399)

1 cup of SELF-CARE: A night at the opera, or whatever floats your boat; a day at the spa; a DIY project that you love to do; lunch with friends; Dinner with family; a movie that makes you laugh, cry, or think more deeply; five minutes of meditation (if that’s your thing – I’d rather study Torah); intentionally seeking a space / place of comfort whether a book, a kitchen table, a comfy chair, a gym, or coffee shop; your definition of good food and good people!

The composite and successful result of the above recipe does seem quite challenging to achieve. But, then again, as Mordechai famously said to Esther on the heels of Haman’s plot to destroy the Jews, “If you keep silent in this crisis, relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another quarter, while you and your father’s house will perish. And who knows, perhaps you have attained to royal position for just such a crisis!” (Esther 4:14)

Thus, I hope we all dig into the recipe to the extent possible! And about the upcoming holiday of Purim: I thank God each and every day for the simple joy of our being together, for listening to, and supporting each other’s joys and oy’s, for the commitment of our non-Jewish friends and colleagues to hold us up, and defend and protect us when we need them, and for our obligation to observe in celebration the special days in the Jewish calendar as a mainstay for our Jewish existence. To that end, please be present at our Purim celebration on March 22—together we are stronger and we can face the uncertainty of tomorrow for Israel and for our diaspora Jewish community under the continuous antisemitic assaults. If there was ever a time for a Jew to hold our head high and strive to be more holy, moral, ethical, and inclusive than ever, it is now.

*Always, L’shalom—for Peace,
Rabbi Jan*

Message from President Ira Keltz

Happy March TBI'ers!

I would like to acknowledge the outstanding efforts of the new TBI Interim Steering Committee as they ramp up their work in preparation for their new role starting in late June 2024 when I step down as President of TBI after 5 years of service. Stu Needleman, Barbara Katz, Karen Lukeman, Reva Tankle, and Carl Crosley are the committee members and they have been very busy working on reassigning tasks and duties among a wider number of volunteers, while maintaining a clear vision forward. This group of leaders will shepherd our Temple as we transition to our next phase of our history and find our next president to lead us through the last half of the decade. We are always looking for members willing to participate on committees by sharing their passion and expertise with the congregation. The future of TBI is bright and I look forward to making many more memories with all of you in the years to come.

This month, we have just one TBI weekend coming up on March 22nd and 23rd with a 7:30pm Friday night service and our Purim Celebration and Spiel scheduled for Saturday at 4pm. Please join us for food, fun, and a very entertaining 'radio play' produced and directed by Debbi Finkelstein with her take on the Purim Story! Costumes are encouraged and a nice spread is guaranteed!

I also want to remind you to please purchase tickets for the May 25th We Care Concert featuring David Clark's 'All About Joel', a Billy Joel Tribute show to benefit the Lakes Region Food Pantry! Tickets are $40 and it's sure to be an amazing evening that will help provide food/groceries to those who need them in the area. Invite your friends, promote the event on your social media, and continue the tradition of TBI's We Care Program, making a difference in the Lakes Region of NH.

Finally, the 2024 'Best of the Lakes Region' Voting opens on March 19th at noon- please vote for TBI as the 'Best Place of Worship' under the 'Things to Do' category each day through April 5th at 5pm on multiple devices to ensure we can win for the 5th year in a row. The link can be found at <https://www.votelakesbest.com/>.

I wish you all a happy NH Maple month and hope that sweetness of the season is a part of all of our lives this year.

Thank you, Ira

TBI Update: Transition and Moving Forward Together

With deep gratitude, we acknowledge the tremendous dedication of Ira Keltz. For the past five years, Ira has served as our president, leading TBI through a period of significant growth and positive development. We are truly grateful for his leadership and commitment to our community.

As Ira transitions from the presidency, the TBI board has established an Interim Steering Committee (ISC) to ensure the smooth continuation of our temple's operations while the search for a new president unfolds. The ISC is comprised of dedicated and experienced members who will provide stability and guidance during this time.

During this meeting, the ISC will share more details about the search process for a new president, as well as provide an opportunity for open discussion and feedback about the future of TBI. We look forward to seeing you there!

THE HIDDEN JEWS OF MAJORCA: Film Screening & Talk Back with Director (hybrid)

Wednesday, April 3, 2024 - 6:30 to 9:00 PM

Join Temple Beth Elohim (Wellesley, Ma) and the Jewish Cemetery Association of Massachusetts (JCAM) for a film screening and talkback with Dani Rotstein, director of the new documentary Xueta Island: A Hidden History, which explores the fascinating legacy of the Xuetas (pronounced Chuetas), a unique group of families on the Balearic island of Majorca, Spain who are believed to be descendants of the island's Inquisition-era Jewish population.

Though they were practicing Catholics, the Xuetas were discriminated against up until the middle of the 20th century. As Jewish life makes a tentative return to the Balearic Islands, a stifled minority is reintroduced to half-remembered culture and traditions handed down under duress across generations.

This illuminating film seeks to reconcile the painful past with a vision of a brighter, more inclusive future. Watch the trailer, click here:
